

#Peer Pressure

Do not follow the crowd in doing wrong. (Exo. 23:2)

"Well, there is a whole lot less peer pressure"

Peer Pressure

- Peer pressure- influence from members of one's peer group.
- This is faced by both kids and adults
- Main reasons or Peer Pressure-
 - A desire to 'fit in.'
 - To avoid rejection and gain social acceptance.
 - Hormonal inconsistencies.
 - Personal/social confusion and/or anxiety.
 - A lack of structure at home.
- Peer Pressure will make you to take some decision and some of them will be major and will have lifelong consequences.
- Peer pressure is not always a bad thing. For example, positive peer pressure can be used to pressure bullies into acting better toward other kids. If enough kids get together, peers can pressure each other into doing what's right.
